

Wiper Blade Technology

Internal Steel Spring Technology

BOSCH

New Technology – External Metal Tension Springs

Previous Technology – Internal Tension Springs

All Bosch wiper blades utilize exclusive metal tension springs. They are specially tensioned for each blade length for consistent windshield contact. Bosch beam blades feature specific beam curvature for specialty wiper arm types. These innovative designs are engineered to give you crystal clear visibility and superior streak-free performance over a long service life.

View other wiper blades made by Bosch on our website.