Understanding Scents And Memories

Scent is the strongest sense tied to memory. A single puff of any aroma can bring on a flood of memories, influence people's moods, and even affect their work performance. Because the olfactory bulb is part of the brain's limbic system, (an area so closely associated with memory,) smells can bring up memories and evoke powerful responses almost instantaneously. When you first experience a new scent, your brain links it to the place, time, and moment where you first experienced it. Your brain forges a link between the smell and the memory. When you encounter the smell again, the link is already there, ready to elicit a memory or a mood.

How Smell Affects Perception

Successful business use pleasing scents to satisfy customers. High end stores, shopping malls, restaurants, hotels, and casinos have been paying attention to scents for decades. Think about the last time you walked The Strip in Las Vegas: did you notice nice smells when you walked into the hotels or clubs? It wasn't on accident. Institutions keep their facilities clean and pump fragrances through ventilation ducts to maximize the effect. If you like the way a place smells, there's a chance that you'll rate your experience there more positively than you would have otherwise.

Natural Odor Eliminators

Stripper Scent Premium Air Freshener & Odor Eliminator is a concentrated long-lasting premium air freshener with natural enzymatic odor eliminators. These enzymes eliminate odor to help eliminate old smells and reduce new ones from popping up. Use Stripper Scent sparingly, or dilute accordingly for a pleasant perfume with long-lasting deodorizing abilities.

Stripper Scent: Fun For Everyone!

Growing up is tough. Along the way, you may have gotten lost and forgotten what it takes to have fun. Stripper Scent is for the person who lives life to the max, and chooses to live in the moment to have the most fun possible!

Live in the now: Fun means enjoying the moment you are living right now instead of waiting for a better one to come. Adults are trained to think about all the things we have to do later: tonight, tomorrow, next week. Don't forget that where you are NOW is where the fun is! Nowhere else.

Get out of your comfort zone: Take risks! Without ever taking a risk, you may never find out how far you can go. As we get older, we tend to stay in our safe place. Your day will be so much more exciting if you gather the guts to get wild and have fun!

Dance to the rhythm of the beat: Seek out the symphony in the background noise, and never stop dancing.

Remember to smile: Research shows that children smile over 400 times a day on average while adults smile only 15. A smile is the catalyst for having fun.

Be unpredictable: Break out of your ordinary routine, and bask in your newfound liberation!

Break the rules: Fun doesn't follow the rules.
